Future Ready PA Index

In looking at ways to create a more holistic school evaluation tool, the Pennsylvania Department of Education conducted dozens of feedback sessions to solicit recommendations from more than 1,000 stakeholders around a new measure.

The Future Ready PA Index will serve as Pennsylvania's one-stop location for comprehensive information about school success, and will highlight how schools are performing and making progress on multiple indicators.

Progress

Communicates school progress in clear, concise terms with color-coded designations.

Statewide Goals

Identifies statewide goals and provides snapshots of progress toward those goals.

Diverse Measures

Provides easy-to-understand information about a variety of measures of school performance.

Comparisons

Includes comparison to statewide average for every school as context for each indicator.

Subgroup Measures

Includes subgroup measures across indicators for greater transparency and accountability.

School Success

Allows for individuals and communities to view the data in ways that reflect their values.
